Four North Penn High School students were recently selected for the Boys and Girls All-American Water Polo teams.

North Penn senior Sam Deana was selected for the 2010 NISCA All-America Girls Water Polo Second Team. In addition to this achievement, she has also been honored with the following recognitions throughout her water polo career at North Penn: All-State Freshman Team honors, freshman year; Most Improved Player Award, junior year; 3rd Team All-State Honors, junior year; Most Valuable Player, senior year; First Team All-League, Senior Year; and First Team All-State Honors, senior year.

Teammate Kristi Baur was selected for the NISCA All-America Girls Water Polo Fourth Team. In addition to this achievement, she has also been honored with the following recognitions throughout her water polo career at North Penn: All-State Freshman Team honors; Coaches Award, junior year; Award for Commitment, Talent and Spirit, senior year; First Team All-League, senior year; and First Team All-State Honors, senior year.

Both of these students were very instrumental in assisting North Penn to two state championships and a win-loss record of 55-4 in the past two years.

North Penn senior Jack Else was selected for the 2010 NISCA All-America Boys Water Polo First Team. In addition to this achievement, he has also been honored with the following recognitions throughout his water polo career at North Penn: Pennsylvania Rookie of the Year Nominee, freshman year; All-Freshman Team; Third Team All-State, sophomore year; Most Valuable Player, junior year; First Team All-State, junior year; Second Team All-American, junior year; Most Valuable Player, senior year; Mr. Water Polo (State MVP), senior year; First Team All-League, senior year; and First Team All-State, senior year.

Teammate Sean McDonald was selected for the 2010 NISCA All-America Boys Water Polo Fourth Team. In addition to this achievement, he has also been honored with the following recognitions throughout his water polo career at North Penn: All-Freshman Team; Honorable Mention All-State, junior year; First Team All-League, senior year; First Team All-State, senior year; and Academic All-American, senior year.

Both of these students were instrumental in the NPHS Boys' Water Polo team's success this year, placing second in the state.
