LOCAL ROUNDUP: NPAAA inducting early '90s North Penn swim teams

Friday, October 8, 2010

By The Reporter

The powerhouse North Penn High School girls and boys 1990 state championship swimming teams, as well as, the 1991 and 1992 boys state championship swimming teams are being inducted into the North Penn Alumni Athletic Association on Saturday at the North Penn High School Auditorium.

The inductees are to arrive at the high school by 6 p.m. for group pictures and a brief orientation. The ceremony begins at 7 p.m.

The individual records set by the 1990 girls and boys swimmers are still current records at the high school today.

Derek Williams, Danielle Strader, Julie Krail, and coach of the boys teams, Bill Berardelli, were individually inducted in previous Hall of Fame inductions, but now the girls coach Selma Robinson, who is being individually inducted, and the 1990 girls and boys teams, as well as the 1991 and 1992 boys teams will be joining them on the Hall of Fame wall.

All these phenomenal athletes, coming from all over the United States, will be under one roof for one night.

GOLF

North Penn's Dickens takes home the SOL title

North Penn's Melanie Dickens survived the rainy weather on Tuesday to capture her second consecutive Suburban One League title at Five Ponds.

The North Penn senior, who shot a respectable 78 despite driving rain and miserable conditions, played 45 holes of golf in 24 hours, using her skill as well as stamina and perseverance to win the championship.

The senior played 18 holes in the SOL men's tournament at Indian Valley Country Club on Monday, then went directly to her team's match against Central Bucks East, then had an early wake-up call for a 9 a.m. tee time on Tuesday.

It all ended happily for Dickens, who went home a league champion, and headed for districts.

LC headed to PCL's

For the first time in school history, Lansdale Catholic made the Philadelphia Catholic League Championship Tournament, composed of the eight best teams in the PCL.

With a final record of 8-6, LC has had a successful season, finishing in eighth place, which was less than desired but the team learned from the experience and is confident to improve upon that finish next year.

Sophomore Jeffrey Wysocki earned All-Catholic honors this year with his consistent play. He automatically advances to the PIAA District Championship on October 12th at Island Green Country Club in Philadelphia.

Christopher Dock 209, Delco Christian 216

The Pioneers had a consistent day, led by Kyle Martin's 38.

Dock improved to 6-5 with the win.

GIRLS SOCCER

Lansdale Catholic 2, Archbishop Ryan 1

The Crusaders played a very physical match with playoff intensity, and it could be a preview of a matchup to take place in November.

Melissa Chapman continues to shine as a defensive wunderkind for the Crusaders, winning the middle of the field and clearing trouble away from the LC goal area.

LC (7-2-3 overall and 5-1-2 in the PCL) is at Hallahan High School on Monday at 3:30 p.m.
