The Reporter

Who she is: Jan Ikeda, senior, North Penn swimming

What she's done: Ikeda won two events and helped a North Penn relay to first place as the Maidens earned a non-conference victory last Thursday by defeating Mount St. Joseph 108-75.

Ikeda hit the wall first in the 200 free, winning the even in a time of 2:00.50, with the senior claiming first in the 100 fly with her time of 58.86. She also swam on the Maidens' 200 free relay team that won the even in 1:42.64.

What's next: North Penn visits Pennridge for a Suburban One League Continental Conference meet 4:30 p.m. today. The Maidens are on the road again Thursday as they face Upper Dublin for a 3:30 p.m. meet.

Honorable Mention: Shea Wassel (Lansdale Catholic basketball) scored double-digits in back-to-back Crusader victories — posting 10 points in the 62-31 win over Upper Moreland last Friday, then a game-high 16 points as LC topped St. Basil 39-34 last Saturday; Chloe Thomas (Souderton swimming) won two individual events (50 and 100 free) and swam on the first place 200 free and 400 free relays as the Indians bested Central Bucks East 103-83 last Tuesday; Emma Sullivan (Methacton indoor track) set a meet record a tied a school record with her first-place mark of 10 feet in the pole vault last Wednesday at the Hill School Invitational.
