Boland Bintner had an overwhelming final round to pull away from Central Bucks South's Nash Nickerson, winning the competition with a final score of 510.95.

"I wasn't really expecting to win. I knew I had a good chance to makes states,' said Boland Bintner, after posing for pictures with he and his fellow state-bound teammates. "I knew (Nash) was really good."

The Knight sophomore had a slim lead over Nickerson going into the final round — 351.65 to 351.05 — but then broke it open. Boland Bintner's gold-medal effort was part of a tremendous overall performance by North Penn.

The defending district champion Knights took three of the top four spots, with Bryce Hoch finishing with 468.45 points, right behind Nickerson (479.60), and Quinn Mitchell placed fourth for NP, with a score of 459.10.

Also earning state spots were Council Rock North's Matt Aronson (448.70), Cheltenham's Matt Werner (448.70), Hatboro-Horsham's Nick Zumpino (434.45) and Springfield-Delco's Brian Layden (415.15).

In Class AA, Upper Moreland's Dan Wilcox also dove to his first district title, winning gold with a 449.10. Teammate Dylan Walker is also state-bound, capturing silver with a 378.80.
