

Print-/PDF-ViewLetter to the editorTextviewArticle in Window WidthClose Window

NP wins state title

The Reporter

The North Penn girls water polo team won its second state title in three years Saturday, as the Maidens topped Wilson 6-4 in the final of the State Championships at Cumberland Valley High School.

Heather Fellmeth scored three goals in the Championship Game, help to lead North Penn to its first title since 2006. Caley Britton had two assists.

Souderton finished in third , defeated Governor Mifflin 3-2 in the Third Place Game.

The Maidens completed the two-day tournament undefeated to win Pool A. North Penn topped Wyoming Valley West 11-4. Shelby Rinker had three goals with Sam Deana scoring twice. Shauna Hannings had three steals.

The Maidens earned the spot in the final with a pair of wins Saturday. NP best McDowell. Fellmeth collected three goals, with Britton having three steals and two assists.

Rinker had four goals in the 6-4 win over Mifflin.

Souderton opened Friday with a 13-3 victory against North Allegheny. Big Red downed Cumberland Valley 12-7, but fell to Wilson 10-9 to finish second in Pool B.

Fellmeth and Rinker were named First Team All-State selections, with Erin Meingossner and Georgia Simcox making Second Team. Dean and Britton were Third Team picks.

Print-/PDF-ViewLetter to the editorTextviewArticle in Window WidthClose Window