GIRLS WATER POLO: Maidens take second in state

Sunday, October 31, 2010

By: The Reporter

The North Penn girls water polo team fell in the state finals to host Cumberland Valley, 12-5 on Saturday night.

Still, the Maidens were honored with three first-team state selections in Lindsay Musoleno, Mary Morris and Brooke Else.

North Penn opened bracket play on Saturday with an 8-3 victory over crosstown rival Souderton. Jenn Halcovage did the damage there with two goals. Next, North Penn drilled Wissahickon 16-7. Alex Kajari led the way there with three goals, while Else, Morris, Musoleno and Halcovage each chipped in with two goals.

On to the semifinals where North Penn defeated Wilson 12-7 behind a four-goal effort from Else. Musloneo added three goals and Karlie Vogt had two more for the Maidens.

In the championship game, North Penn was down just 4-2 at the half but was outscored 5-1 in the third quarter in dropping the match. Else led the way for the Maidens with two goals in the finals.

North Penn ended another successful season with a final record of 31-3.
